Restaurants

Atlantic Fish Co.

761 Boylston Street
Seafood • 0.3 Miles

A landmark for Boston's best seafood, Atlantic Fish has been serving the freshest catch since 1978. Our menus are printed daily to reflect the quality of our offerings, sourced straight from the harbor every morning. Discover a taste of local waters in our dining room or on our outdoor patio.

The Bristol Lounge

200 Boylston Street
American • 0.2 Miles

Boasting floor-to-ceiling views of the Public Garden, The Bristol Lounge is Boston's best restaurant for fine dining, drinks and conversation at all times of day. On weekdays, power breakfasts and lunches are followed by a vibrant dinner scene. On weekends, the restaurant is the place to be for signature cocktails, afternoon tea, or a date night in downtown Boston.

City Table

65 Exeter Street
American, International • 0.2 Miles

At City Table, you'll find a casually elegant neighborhood eatery nestled in the vibrant heart of Boston's historic Back Bay. Visit our sophisticated dining room to experience inventive craft cocktails and carefully selected, spirited American fare. Our creative menu focuses on fresh, local ingredients and chef-inspired, regional touches. A variety of small plates, sides and entrees are easily shared so guests can explore many options. Service includes breakfast every day of the week, brunch on weekends, and late-night dining.

Clio

370A Commonwealth Avenue
American, French • 0.8 Miles

Creative contemporary French cuisine with a global touch from Executive Chef Ken Oringer and Chef de Cuisine Douglas Rodrigues. Killer cocktails at the bar by Todd Maul. Everything at Clio is delicious, but if you can, snag a spot at the bar—it's where all the action is. Clio's bartenders are a friendly, creative bunch, and a great match to the mind-blowing cocktail list. At the bar, order the pork belly steam buns—the best pork belly I've ever had, anywhere—and the bahn mi. Flip straight to the ROTOVAP section of the cocktail list, or just pick anything that includes smoked cinnamon or charred jalapeno for the sake of watching them light up the bar-side grills to prepare your beverage.

The Courtyard Restaurant

700 Boylston Street
French • 0.2 Miles

Overlooking the beautiful Italianate courtyard in the Boston Public Library's historic McKim building, the Courtyard Restaurant is steeped in history and loaded with delightful luncheon selections.

Erbaluce

69 Church Street
Italian, Seafood • 0.6 Miles

Chef Charles Draghi first gained culinary attention for his personalized and highly praised take on contemporary Italian cuisine at Marcuccio's Restaurant in Boston's North End. Based on the tastes and freshness of ingredients used by his Piemontese family in their home cooking, paired with his classical French culinary training, Charles has developed a uniquely flavorful cuisine.

Fogo de Chão

200 Dartmouth Street
Brazilian Steakhouse • 384 Feet

Welcome to Fogo de Chão (fo-go dèe shoun), an authentic Brazilian steakhouse. In 1979, Fogo began sharing the gaucho way of preparing meat in Porto Alegre, Brazil. Today, our gaucho chefs still expertly grill each of our 16 cuts of meat and offer you continuous tableside service.

We invite you to enjoy the delicious preparations of our gaucho chefs along with our gourmet salad bar, authentic Brazilian side dishes, and award-winning wine list. Welcome to Fogo de Chão.

L'Espalier

774 Boylston Street
French • 0.3 Miles

In the heart of fashionable Back Bay, adjacent to the Mandarin Oriental Hotel on Boylston Street, one block from the Hynes Convention Center, Prudential Center, and Copley Place. L'Espalier is walking distance to Symphony Hall, Berklee Performance Center and major colleges and universities.

Sophisticated and modern New England-French cuisine, with an emphasis on artisanal and New England ingredients.

Mistral

23 Columbus Avenue
Bistro • 0.4 Miles

Boston's acclaimed French restaurant from celebrated Chef/Owner Jamie Mammano. Located in the city's stylish South End, Mistral showcases Chef Mammano's uncomplicated French Mediterranean cuisine, highlighted with the season's finest ingredients. Inspired by the wind that sweeps through the south of France, the restaurant's decor is reminiscent of Provence with hand-picked French pottery, high ceilings and arched floor to ceiling windows that evoke a feeling of warmth and sophistication. Mistral's dramatic dining room serves dinner nightly and Sunday Brunch.

No. 9 Park

700 Boylston Street
French • 1.1 Miles

Located in an elegant townhouse in Boston's historic Beacon Hill, No. 9 Park provides an intimate setting in which to enjoy Chef Barbara Lynch's refined cuisine. The menu showcases an artful blend of regionally-inspired Italian and French dishes with an emphasis on simplicity and flavor. Our wine list includes a number of old world wines from boutique vintners selected by award-winning wine director Cat Silirie. From the thoughtfully selected wines to the warm hospitality, No. 9 Park continues to set the standard for fine dining in Boston, and has received numerous accolades including, but not limited to, AAA Four Diamond Rating, 2012 James Beard Foundation Award for Outstanding Wine Program, and Boston Magazine's Best of Boston and 50 Best Restaurants lists.

Sonsie

327 Newbury Street
American • 0.6 Miles

Top-notch International cuisine from award-winning Chef Bill Poirier. Open seven days a week from 7:00a.m. to 1:00a.m., Sonsie boasts beautiful French doors that translate to an open sidewalk cafe in season, as well as a European lounge with deep leather chairs and sofas. The mahogany bar serves the best martinis in town from an experienced lot of friendly bartenders and the brick-oven churns out eclectic pizzas and focaccia throughout the day. It is easy to relax at Sonsie and enjoy the classic music that reflects the ambience of the restaurant as day progresses into night.

Sorellina

1 Huntington Avenue
Italian • 440 Feet

Located in the heart of Boston's historic Copley Square, renowned Chef/Owner Jamie Mammano's Italian-inspired Sorellina presents modern interpretations of classic Italian cuisine with an emphasis on distinct preparations of the season's best offerings. The extensive wine list follows the same inspiration by offering a mix of classic and contemporary selections with a focus on Italy's most reputable producers. The dining room at Sorellina evokes a sense of comfort and sophistication with its invitingly warm-modern design and chic decor, serving as the perfect backdrop for Chef Mammano's cuisine.
