

Presenter Bio

Browning E. Marean
Partner
DLA Piper US LLP

Browning E. Marean is Senior Counsel in DLA Piper's San Diego office, and is one of the worldwide leaders of the firm's e-discovery task force. He advises firm clients about best practices for the preservation of electronic data to avoid litigation risks and to meet the other challenges of e-discovery in a cost effective manner. He is co-chair of the firm's Electronic Discovery Readiness and Response Group and is a member of the firm's Litigation Group.

Mr. Marean also specializes in complex business litigation, technology matters, knowledge management and professional responsibility. He is a frequent and an internationally known teacher and lecturer on various topics including electronic discovery, computer technology, matter management, knowledge management, risk and decision analysis and legal ethics issues.

Mr. Marean joined the firm (then Gray Cary Ames & Frye) in 1969. He is a member of DLA Piper's Technology Committee, as well as a member of the Sedona Conference. He also is on the San Diego County Bar Association Ethics Committee and an emeritus member of the California State Bar Law Practice Management Committee, a member of the ABA Tech Show Board, and the EDRM group.

Mr. Marean is Co-author of "Electronic Discovery and Records Management Guide, Rules, Checklists and Forms" 2010 edition published by Thomson West, and "Conducting Discovery in an Electronic World: Electronic Data and Discovery" published in California Civil Discovery Practice.

Mr. Marean received his law degree from the University of California, Hastings College of Law and his undergraduate degree from Stanford University. He is admitted to practice in California and Texas.
