

A TIMELINE OF THIS YEAR'S TOP STORIES

as reported by  ICIS

MARCH

Weak overseas demand prompts China slowdown 05

 PETRONAS to consider alternative growth paths 19

MAY

Expanded polystyrene now increasingly acceptable for recyclability 02

Western sanctions on Russia post limited threat 12

Philippines' first naphtha cracker expected to start in 21-24 May 16

Thailand's political crisis threatens economic growth 23

JULY

Shortage in skilled labour force impacts global chemical markets 22

Indonesia elects new president, leading to short-term positivity for foreign investors 23

SEPTEMBER

US impose sanctions on Iran petrochemical exports, affects global chemical community 01

A.Schulman eyes further expansion in Asia 08

Indian PVC prices see slight fall on softening demand 23

Lyndol/Basell CEO Jim Gallogly to retire 29

JANUARY

06 Europe PE buyers face higher prices in January

14 European parliament urges tougher rules for plastics recycling

FEBRUARY

24 Borealis shifts investment opportunity focus to eastern Europe fertilizers

27 Europe methanol prices firm in light of tight supply and high demand

APRIL

03 Qatar's Muntajat plans 21 new offices by the end of 2014

14 Petrochemicals and fertilizers growth in Qatar presents new revenue opportunities

25 Green chemicals to serve niche markets amidst production challenges

JUNE

04 US shale gas boom faces logistical nightmares

04 Europe styrene faces ramifications following the Moerdijk explosion

17 Cepsa's market share in Asia increases with new Shanghai phenol and acetone plant

AUGUST

15 PTTGC, Pertamina petrochemical complex in Indonesia to begin operations by 2020

20 Saudi Aramco invests in chemical innovation company, Siluria Technologies

29 September ethylene and propylene contract prices settle lower at €50-55 per tonne

OCTOBER

04 ICIS reports live from (European Petrochemical Association) EPCA 2014

13 INEOS acquires majority stake in UK shale gas license

14 Asia naphtha market remains sluggish

Don't be the last to receive breaking news stories and cutting edge analysis.
Request your free trial of our news service today - www.icis.com/news_trial

