

Navigate your way through alternative dispute resolution
Australian Commercial Arbitration

Provide confident, accurate advice on domestic commercial arbitration

These are dynamic times for commercial lawyers. Arbitration is becoming a preferred technique of settling commercial disputes and the challenging economic times continue to compel controversial contractual agreements.

To use commercial arbitration to your advantage, it is necessary to have clear guidance on the operations of the newly enacted uniform Commercial Arbitration Acts.

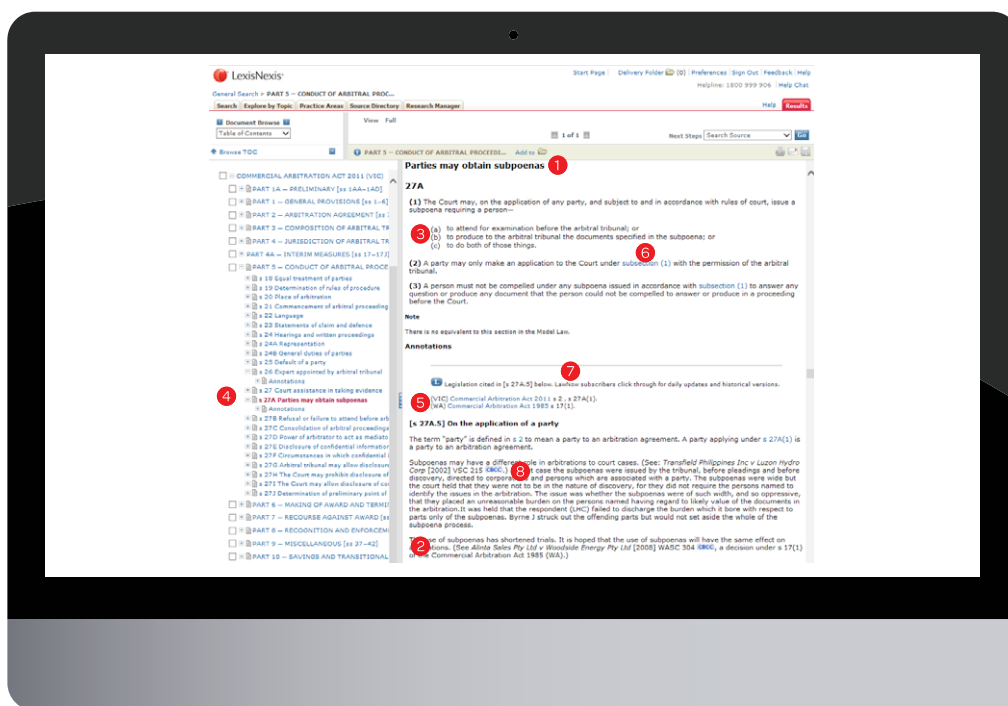

Australian Commercial Arbitration provides detailed annotations on the harmonised legislation. The authors' definitive analysis of relevant case law and legislation guides you through the legal principles, procedures and practical issues that arise in commercial arbitration. Moreover, an easy-to-use comparative table helps practitioners in every state and territory to navigate the current regime.

Understand the key issues in domestic commercial arbitration.
Call 1800 772 772 to learn more or sign-up for a 14-day trial.

Australian Commercial Arbitration responds to the rise in domestic arbitration by providing detailed annotations explaining the operation of the harmonised legislation.

Develop a competitive advantage through Australian Commercial Arbitration with:

- 1 Concise annotations to each section of the uniform Acts, explaining the operation of the regime under this.
- 2 Expert analysis of relevant case law.
- 3 Guidance on practise and procedure in arbitration.
- 4 Quick access and easy navigation.
- 5 Up-to-date information.
- 6 Cross-linkage within the legislation.
- 7 Links to Law Now
- 8 Links to CaseBase.

Authors
John Hockley, Commercial Barrister
 B Sc (Hons); Dip Ed; Ph D (UNE); LL B (UNSW); LL M (Melb); Dip Int'l Tax (Harv)
 Member WA Bar Assoc; WA Law Soc; STEP; AMPLA; Tax Institute; AIAL; ACCL

The Hon Clyde Croft, Judge of the Supreme Court of Victoria
 B.Ec. LL M (Mon), Ph D (Cantab) LFIAMA, FACICA, FAMINZ, Nationally Accredited Mediator (NMAS).
 Adjunct Professor of Law, Deakin University.
 Australian Delegate and Rapporteur on UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration.

Kieran R Hickie, Commercial Barrister
 B Com, LL B (Hons) (Deak); Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot
 Member Vic Bar
 Australian Delegate on UNCITRAL
 Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration

William KQ Ho, Solicitor
 BA, LLB (Hons) (Deak); Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot
 Member ACICA; K&L Gates
 Published in the Journal of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators
 Australian Delegate on UNCITRAL
 Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration

Understand the key issues in domestic commercial arbitration.
 Visit www.lexisnexis.com.au/comarb or sign-up for a 14-day trial.

