Bob Botelho Account Manager Tel +1 720 264 6618 robert.botelho@platts.com Sponsoring a Platts webinar will help you generate qualified leads and build or reinforce your company's brand.

Online events provide one of the fastest ways to reach industry leaders in your market. Quick turn time and the ability to instantly measure response rates, plus targeted, quality traffic from around the globe make Platts webinars a prime opportunity to get your message in front of hundreds of key decision-makers in the global energy industry. When it comes to reaching and motivating prospects, nothing beats the excitement and cost-effectiveness of a live online event. With Platts, we will plan, promote and produce everything required to ensure your company's sponsorship generates successful results.

Platts Webinars give you:

- Fully qualified leads
- Excellent branding exposure
- Audience interaction via web based Q&A, polling and exit survey
- Opportunity to educate your target audience
- · A way to reach new customers and showcase your thought leadership
- · Ability to market to a new qualified database

Turn-key marketing:

- Platts will send a minimum of three marketing e-mails promoting the webinar, with your company logo included
- A minimum of six webinar ads will be showcased in the industry's most respected newsletters Platts Gas Daily, Oilgram News, Megawatt Daily, SBB Steel Markets Daily, Inside FERC and more
- · Your company branding will be on the webinar landing page and player, archived for one year

Generate high-quality leads and reinforce your company's thought leadership position.
