

Global Metals Awards

Overview

The audience is select, the potential to grow your brand is enormous. Connect with the industry's elite at the global metals market's most prestigious black-tie awards. The 5th annual S&P Global Platts Global Metals Awards will be held May 18 at the Marriott Grosvenor Square in London. Please contact our team now for details on how we can help you achieve your business goals.

The world's leading players shaping the future of the metals industry

The who's who in metals, the industry's elite, will be at the 5th S&P Global Platts Global Metals Awards.

It's a black-tie event that opens doors like no other. This is an outstanding and influential group of key decision-makers who are notoriously hard to reach. Become a sponsor now and you have a unique opportunity to promote your brand and thought leadership to a receptive audience — not just for one night, but for an entire year. And the benefits extend much further:

- Develop C-suite relationships with leading metals and steel executives
- Demonstrate industry leadership when your executive presents awards to winners on stage

An investment with payback all year round

S&P Global Platts is more than the host; we'll partner with you to achieve your business and marketing goals. Visibility is everything. We'll use our global exposure to raise your profile and promote your brand before, during and after the event — our extensive marketing campaign reaches senior metals leaders all year long. Traditional media cannot match this kind of opportunity to network and develop meaningful and engaging conversations with key decision-makers:

- Reach 100,000 metals professionals through our year-long marketing campaign
- Platts Awards marketing reaches senior global metals executives with millions of impressions
- The Wall Street Journal, Thomson Reuters, Bloomberg, as well as CNBC-Europe's Squawk Box, have previously attended

Reach the global metals elite with your company's message in S&P Global Platts Insight magazine — an annual keepsake highlighting Award winners and an outlook of what's projected in the industry.
