Don't miss out on this ever-expanding competition law database

Kluwer Competition Law is a powerful, electronic database delivering exclusive access to a valuable collection of primary source material, commentary and analysis covering competition law in European Union countries.

Designed to aid your research the site is organized into the specific competition law topics of Antitrust, Mergers, State Aid and Special Sectors. Each topic follows the same, easy-to-use layout and is grouped into four text types:

- Legislation and Notices – Provides you with access to directives and notices, covering guidelines and regulations.
- Commission Decisions – Gathers together decisions from the European Commission including full and summary texts of the Decision, Opinions of the Advisory Committee, Final Reports of the Hearing officer, and Commitments.
- Court Decisions – Contains judgments and orders of the European Court of Justice and Opinions of the Advocate General.
- Commentary – You will gain immediate, unlimited access to a virtual library of over 50 analytical works. For a full list of the Source Publications included on Kluwer Competition Law please turn to the back page of this brochure.

KluwerCompetitionLaw.com also includes:

Kluwer Merger Check

You gain access to a unique tool helping you to increase the speed and accuracy of your merger control check. It leads you step-by-step through a clear and concise set of questions and answers enabling you to identify the notification and filing requirements that relate to your transaction.

Case Files

These consist of links to all relevant Commission Decisions and related Opinions of the Advisory Committee and Final Reports of the Hearing Officers, as well as Court Decisions and related Opinions of the Advocate General.

e-Competitions
