
DIGITAL TEACHING AND LEARNING SERIES

Module B: Digital Teaching and Learning in Practice

About This Course

Course Content

The “Practice in Digital Teaching and Learning: Blackboard Learn Technology” course is the second of three courses in Blackboard’s Digital Teaching and Learning series. It is focused in the technical and pedagogical aspects of how to design and deliver a course in the virtual learning environment.

Course Modules

Day 1

- Getting Started with Blackboard Learn
- Creating Course Structures
- Creating Course Content
- Designing Engaging Discussions

Day 2

- Tests
- Assignments

Day 3

- Rubrics
- Grade Center
Keeping Students on Track

Day 4

- Creating and Facilitating Group Work
- Communication Tools
- Interactive Tools

Day 5

- Overview of Collaborate Ultra
- Participant Interaction
- Communication Methods – Audio, Video, and Chat
- Collaborate Panel and Session Wrap Up

Blackboard

Course Materials and Requirements

You will be provided with a comprehensive workbook that will enable you to develop the competencies you need to become a Blackboard accredited Associate in Digital Teaching and Learning.

Who Should Attend

This course is designed for individuals working in, or intending to work in, an organization that provides blended or e-learning.

Duration

Each course is five days in length.

Important Information

Direct questions to AskUs@blackboard.com or your Blackboard Account Representative. Participants will be issued a username and password for this course in order to access the Blackboard Learning Management System and participate in activities during the session.